Hit your old gait, Sam, and mix with the gang.—Live Oak Democrat.

A dispatch of the 9th from Macon, Ga., says: "A number of lumber men in this city today in conference declare that the ruling out of short leaf pine lumber in northern and eastern cities, unsaleable even at $3 to $5 per thousand feet under regular prices. As a consequence, at least one thousand mills in Georgia, Alabama and Florida are affected, many of which will close unless there is a revocation of the ruling. It is believed here the drastic measure is in the interest of spruce pine manufacturers."
